Lowe's Eagle Program Grant Process

Qualifications

To qualify for a Lowe's National Eagle Scout Project Impact grant, the individual must

- Be a registered Life Scout.
- Complete and submit the Lowe's grant application (copy attached for reference).
- Be sure the Eagle Scout service project has all approvals before the work begins and submit copies of workbook pages 6 through 10 (copy attached for reference).
- Use the Eagle Scout Service Project Workbook to document the results of the service project. Make photographs and all documentation available to the BSA for sharing with Lowe's.

Grant Process

- The grant request is received at the Ventura County Council Scout Service Center.
- All applications are to be given to Jermaine Bell (Staff Adviser to the Council Advancement Committee) for review and applicability.
- The grant request is placed into the appropriate district folder for review by the district advancement committee (DAC).
- The DAC will notify the Scout and Jermaine of their decision.
- The grant request, regardless of the decision, is to be returned to Jermaine Bell to complete the council use portion of the application.
- Jermaine will provide the package of materials which the Scout may then pick up from the service center.

Completion Process

- The Scout should be reminded that project pictures should include the lawn sign that is part of the materials and should be included in the final project documentation that will be submitted as part of his Eagle Scout Rank application submission.
- The Scout should be reminded that a thank you letter to the Lowes Corporation would be in order. This thank you letter will be part of the package submitted to the BSA's Youth Development Team.
- Upon completion of the Eagle board of review, by the DAC, the following materials are to be returned to the service center:
    - Signed Eagle Scout Rank Application
    - Complete Eagle Scout Project Workbook
- The council will make a photocopy of the workbook, if not provided by the DAC, and submit it to the BSA's Youth Development Team as per the grant instructions.
