- 2” 3-ring binder
- Your favorite training aid

Meals

- Breakfast, lunch and dinner will be provided on Friday and Saturday.
- Breakfast and lunch will be provided on Sunday.

Transportation

- If arriving by air it is recommended that you rent a car at the airport.

Location

- At an elevation of 5400 feet, Camp Three Falls is on the border between the sagebrush plain of Lockwood Valley and the forested slopes of Mt. Pinos in an area that’s rich in geological and ecological diversity. The area offers awe-inspiring hikes to the Pinnacles, Middle Falls, North Falls, and beyond. Seasonal weather compares favorably to other camps in southern California and even those in the Sierras.

- IMPORTANT NOTE: Because of its elevation, anyone coming to Camp Three Falls during from October-April is hereby advised that overnight and in fact some daytime temperatures may be well below freezing and that one ought to come fully prepared (as all Scouts and Scouters should) for such conditions. Whether sleeping in the cabins or otherwise a sleeping bag rated below 20 degrees is highly recommended. You will be sleeping in cabins that have no heat
