HELP US CELEBRATE OUR 80TH ANNIVERSARY

Webelos Resident Camp Quick Facts

Webelos Resident Camp provides a great introduction to Scout camping. Even inexperienced campers will have a fantastic time. We provide wall tents with cots. You bring a sleeping bag or blankets, clothing, toilet items, etc. Meals are served in the Dining Hall. We can accommodate food allergies and other special dietary needs with at least two weeks advance notice.

Your den will participate in most activities as a group. We will work with den leaders to plan a schedule to meet your needs and interests, including a balance of fun, learning, and advancement. Activities are built around our living history theme and include:

- Swimming in our pool
- Rowing and canoeing
- Handicrafts
- Nature study
- Camping and outdoor skills (knots, knife safety, fire safety, etc.)
- Indian lore and frontier living skills
- BB gun shooting
- Archery
- Hiking
- Bouldering wall (climbing)
- Campfires with songs, skits and storytelling

All program areas are staffed by carefully selected and trained adults and older scouts.

Each den needs at least two adults in camp at all times, and no less than one adult for each five Webelos Scouts. More adults are welcome.

Price: Pricing for 2013 starts at $185 per Webelos Scout and discounts for adults may apply.

Boy Scout Summer Camp Quick Facts

Our summer camp program offers a great mixture of individual and troop activities, including climbing on our 57-foot tower, shooting at our rifle, shotgun and black powder ranges, boating on our lake, swimming in our swimming pool, and hikes into the surrounding forests.

To meet your Scouts' advancement needs, we offer an outstanding Trail to First Class program and more than 30 merit badges.

Additional programs include:

- BSA Lifeguard
- Mile Swim BSA
- Mountain Biking (expanded program in 2013)
- NRA Marksmanship Awards

Frontier Survivor

Our challenging series of early-morning hikes gives older scouts the chance to test their endurance as they explore canyons, waterfalls, rock formations, and historic sites in the Mt. Pinos backcountry.

Tribe of Matilija

Designed to encourage campers to sample a variety of the individual and group programs that Three Falls has to offer, our honor camping society is open to all boys and adults.

Seneca Run

Show off your mountain man skills in this competition, which includes flint and steel firebuilding, tomahawk throwing, black powder rifle shooting and more.

Price: Pricing for 2013 starts at $340 per Scout and discounts for adults may apply.

Camp Three Falls is located about 15 miles southwest of Frazier Park in the Lockwood Valley in northern Ventura County. Our camp is at an elevation of 5400 feet, at the base of Mt. Pinos, and is surrounded by the Los Padres National Forest. Typical daytime highs are 80 to 90 degrees. Overnight lows are typically in the 50s.

Reservations are now being accepted. A reservation form is available on the Ventura County Council Web site at www.vccbsa.org.
